AA celebrates 75 years

Most of us know of Bill Wilson's (AA's co-founder) successful transformation in Charles Towns Hospital in 1935. There he was to learn the brutal nature of his illness from his attending physician and then some spiritual concepts for recovery from a Reverend in the Oxford Movement.

Similarly, in 1942 in Sydney, Dr Sylvester Minogue of Rydalmere Hospital, Father Tom Dunlea and a psychiatric nurse (Archie McKinnon) were to be brought in contact with one another through Bobby B of the GSO in New York. Others had tried, without success, to form a Sydney group of Alcoholics Anonymous. Independently, McKinnon next year organised at the Darlinghurst reception house what is generally recognised as the first meeting in Australia of AA. Two alcoholics attended: Rex, a returned soldier and member of a wealthy banking family, and Jack, a house-painter; meetings soon moved to the Hasty Tasty all-night café at Kings Cross. Making contact with Dr Sylvester Minogue, the superintendent of Rydalmere Mental Hospital, Frs Tom Dunlea and Murphy, McKinnon co-operated with them to establish the AA organisation in Sydney, in July 1945. The radio broadcaster Frank Sturge Hardy provided publicity. It was in March of 1945 that Rex A first wrote to GSO in New York to introduce his group and himself as the Honourable Secretary of AA in Australia. Indeed, Rex A became acknowledged as the first sober member of AA in Australia after years of relentless effort by three non-alcoholics to help tragic alcoholics under their care. Not surprisingly, the story behind Rex's sobriety bears all the hallmarks of AA's founding 10 years prior in the United States. After years of operating independent of each other, these people of Medicine and Religion had finally succeeded in sobering up a few Aussie alcoholics and essentially founded AA in Australia! So, as we celebrate this great milestone in 2020, let's remember the tremendous debt we owe to our non-alcoholic friends in Medicine and Religion.

Now, more than ever, AA needs your support

With the move to online meetings, the physical basket or hat can no longer be passed. However we need to ensure that our various arms of service survive during this time and continue to prosper.

Twelve step work continues and we have a responsibility to ensure that our service structures are able to support our primary purpose to carry the message, to the still suffering alcoholic. Therefore practising Tradition Seven is more important than ever. Groups may not have rent or refreshments to pay for, but they may have online costs and they need to be in a financial position to be survive and able to open the doors again when restrictions are lifted. If your Group or meeting does not have a bank a bank account into which you can pay your contributions (mine doesn't), consider putting your usual 7th Tradition contribution aside each week in your own basket and contribute that amount when the physical meetings resume.

Our local Central Service Offices will continue to incur expenses such as rent and phone costs and will also need to keep literature stocked up. So please find out from your local one, how to support them.

Areas and Districts too, need our support as their functions such as Public Information, co-operation with institutions and sending their Delegate to the General Service Conference (in what form it may takes this year) continues. Our General Service Office is reliant on literature sales and 7th tradition contributions to remain effective. These have dropped during this time and it is very important to protect our financial prudent reserve as much as possible, and to ensure that the General Service Office continues to serve our Fellowship. As well Group contributions, you can personally support the GSO. All personal donations of $2 or more are tax deductible.

Alcoholics Anonymous vs. Other Approaches: The Evidence Is Now In

An updated review shows it performs better than some other common treatments and is less expensive.

For a long time, medical researchers were unsure whether Alcoholics Anonymous worked better than other approaches to treating people with alcohol use disorder. In 2006, a review of the evidence concluded we didn't have enough evidence to judge. That has changed.

An updated systematic review published Wednesday by the Cochrane Collaboration found that A.A. leads to increased rates and lengths of abstinence compared with other common treatments. On other measures, like drinks per day, it performs as well as approaches provided by individual therapists or doctors who don't rely on A.A.'s peer connections.

What changed? In short, the latest review incorporates more and better evidence. The research is based on an analysis of 27 studies involving 10,565 participants.

Invigorating Areas — Ideas from the Festival of Recovery Ideas

A number of Areas in Australia are struggling. This is evidenced by some not sending delegates to Conference and at past Conference there has been even more absences. We all know that is not a good situations as members in those Areas are not participating in General Services and don't have a voice through their Delegate at Conference.

So with that in mind a workshop was held at a recent Regional Forum to come up with some ideas on what we can do to reinvigorate areas that are struggling or in recess.

These are some of the suggestions that arose out of those workshops and since.

A starting point would be to find out why members don't participate in General Service. We have heard it said that it is too political, that there are disagreements and it's too stressful. But what is meant by this? Have we ever asked members why? A workshop or survey sent to groups might be revealing and allow us to counteract any issues brought to light.

Some Areas don't have districts. Districts are important especially in large Areas and are a good place to start when with when trying to reinvigorate areas that are in recess or struggling. Experience has shown that as the number of groups expand so should the number of Districts within the Area. Districts are the building blocks of new Areas.

To encourage members into General Service, Area Committee members and past Area Committee members could offer to be service sponsors to guide the newer person and make the process smoother. Members don't always know what is required and may be fearful of being thrown in the deep end. Newcomers can be taken to an Assembly since they are never too young to learn about the General Service Structure.

All members should be able to do service and as such out of pocket expenses should be met. This is not being paid for 12th step work but ensures that all Area Committee members are able to attend Assemblies and this not dependent on the members financial situation. Having expenses covered means General Service is to open to all.

Workshops at Assemblies and between Assemblies aids education, but we need to make these relevant and fun. There are some videos on You Tube which show our Service structure in an interesting way with some catchy music. Role play is also good. GSO has one on "How a Topic is brought to Conference", but why not make up your own. Having a panel to answer questions is also a good tool. There are ways to make it fun. For instance have a quiz, a debate, set up a panel based on the ABC show "You Can't Ask That".

Areas need to be active in the PI and TCF area. Members will want to join in service when an Area is active and outward looking and where it is clear that Our Primary Purpose is being demonstrated. Each year our Conference has a theme, but do our members know that or what it is? It may be a good idea to have a speaker at each Assembly on the theme drawn from the local membership, or a workshop on the theme or a even a day of meetings where each meeting uses the theme. Doing this may stimulate a more interest in Conference and get members thinking about topics for Conference relevant to the theme.

Page 164 of our Big Book says" He will show you how to create the fellowship you crave" We must not forget that our loving Higher Power (as you understand) is present in our Group Conscience or underestimate the power of prayer. Perhaps we could have a day of prayer where we concentrate on what our HPs will is for our service entities and ask for the power to carry that out. Too often we feel (and perhaps are) powerless to change things, but we can with help from our Higher Power. The Serenity Prayer is a good place to start.

Lastly, we need to keep sharing ideas, what works, what doesn't work and keep talking to our members. Let them know we need them, the Fellowship needs them and people born today needs them. Other ideas can be found in Advisory Action #059/2001 (Action Plan to encourage the development of service structure) and Page 52 of The Australian General Service Manual (When the Service Structure needs Rebuilding). So let's keep this conversation going. Let's build our Areas to be active, outward looking, truly engaging with members who want to participate, who are excited at the idea of Service. It is a vital leg of our Triangle. Without Service our triangle would collapse. Let it Begin with Me had the opportunity to accompany Brian S to the 13th annual AOSM which was held in Hong Kong in July last year and I am incredibly grateful to have been considered by the Board to participate. To sum it up briefly would be to say it was a very educational experience; rewarding and enlightening. My first day was spent exploring the city of Hong Kong in the morning and in the afternoon attend registration for the AOSM meeting the other and There delegates. were representatives from Thailand, Mongolia, Hong Kong, China, Russia, New Zealand, Iran, South Korea, India, UAE, Japan and Fiji in attendance; some who were first-term delegates and some who were second-term. The chairperson and secretary of the AOSM were from New Zealand, and had two delegates in attendance, as well as Australia and Japan. The Japanese delegates had two interpreters who spent days of the AOSM the repeating everything that was said into Japanese, which was a tough job. In addition, we had two representatives from AAWS, Eva and David, who had attended the AOSM and provided interesting insight and spoke on topics of their expertise in AA World Services.

The second day of the AOSM began with countries reading their reports and commenting on what the Fellowship of AA looked like in their regions. Some countries, such as Thailand and UAE/MERCAA, the have struggled to maintain a strong AA Fellowship due to cultural differences and the fact that AA is still considered to be a very hidden resource in communities. Another common problem which was being faced in many of the countries in attendance was engagement from those of the native land and non-English speaking; the representative from Thailand was an American man, the representative from China was a New Zealand Maori man, the representative from Hong Kong was an English man, and the representative of South Korea was a Canadian man. It was bought up frequently in discussions that it was a common problem that was being faced in the Fellowship of some of these countries and attempts to discuss solutions were made during the AOSM. After the countries had read their reports, we moved onwards to the Secretary and Treasurer reports. Following this, the committee reports were read.

Later, we separated into workshop groups to discuss questions which were designed to invite discussion of how the AOSM could function better and how countries could support one another. Workshop discussions were held again on the third and fourth days, to address a total of 8 topics which included:

AOSM statement of purpose, Country-to-Country Service

Sponsorship,

Networking and communication between meetings,

Countries financing their delegates,

Financial sponsorship for delegates to attend AOSM, Agenda items/topics for discussion in the 14th AOSM, Prudent reserve for AOSM.

A presentation was given from David R at AA World Service regarding literature and licensing. Exciting advancements in the realm of AA literature included adaptation of text into e -book format for prisons and treatment facilities, audio versions of pamphlets, and looking into production of material in sign language. David then went on to describe how future advancements would look: such as voice-activated intelligence in the home (think Alexa home systems) which would be able to read AA literature over speaker! David advised that the GSO New York is not seeing any decline, currently, of literature sale due to the introduction of e-books and revenue is maintaining steadily. Eva advised that when it comes to the depiction of AA in film and TV, they receive requests from producers to ensure accuracy and the GSO New York will review prior to the material being produced and distributed.

I came back from the AOSM feeling very inspired by the discussions and sharing that had been had, and excited about my within the Fellowship. role Having just come off a Board meeting only a few days prior where we had a portion of time which was to discuss issues that left me feeling tired and drained, engaging in the AOSM discussions had given me a new perspective and appreciation for my role in the Fellowship and for the opportunity which had been provided to me. I left Hong Kong with relationships built, laughs had, tears shed and an educated mind. I was immensely grateful to have been able to attend.

Coronavirus in Ballarat: Easter amid COVID-19 looms as high-risk time for drinkers

The first time I walked into a 12-step meeting I was overwhelmed by how many people were in this together. I came back. And when the people around me applauded and congratulated me as I marked 30, 60, and then 90 days of sobriety, I felt years of shame lifting

The key of 12-step recovery is the steps. But "the rooms" are the heart of Alcoholics Anonymous and its associated fellowships. The rooms are the meeting places where other addicts talk about their lives, their despair and the difficult road back. Those stories are often extraordinary. An exprisoner with a stone-hard gaze will weep and talk about decades lost running away from his fears. A senior business executive will describe the shocking steps she once took for that one last hit. There's no judgment. Everyone here has walked through hor

Alcoholics face extra challenges with coronavirus isolation

Coronavirus-imposed isolation is posing big challenges for people who attend Alcoholics Anonymous meetings.

Meetings have been cancelled indefinitely because of restrictions around the virus.

"The biggest impact I think is the isolation," a local organiser said.

"As an alcoholic, I'm most vulnerable when I'm isolated. My mind goes into overdrive and I overthink everything."

One of the most interesting stories to come out of the COVID-19 pandemic is about how AA has so nimbly responded to the challenges wrought by the closure of face to face meetings. In a matter of a few weeks, (and with some heavy duty, behind-the-scenes hard slog) the member volunteers that keep the AA Meeting Database up to date have pivoted from zero video conferencing meetings at the middle of March to now nearly 1000 video conferencing meetings per week! Members have had the opportunity to engage with AA members across the globe in fellowship. For some, video conferencing meetings will be a part of their recovery meetings alongside face to face meetings. How lucky we are.

Southern Region Area D hits the heights!

At the last Area D, Southern Region Assembly in February it was agreed to look at the possibility of commissioning one metro and one country railway billboard. Then Covid-19 restrictions happened. The next hurdle we found was that V-Line do not allow billboards at the country stations. After further research we came across a digital billboard in Ballarat.

A local member in Ballarat checked the location of the 7mx3m site to see if it was worth further investigation. It is in a prime location directly by a Dan Murphy's within a busy shopping area. As members were unable to do face to face PI, so felt that this was a great opportunity to carry the message to the still suffering alcoholic, so contacted the company. Normally the billboard costs $1600 for a 2 week campaign but as we are a not-for-profit they agreed to give us a 3 week campaign for a total cost of $495. Our image is seen approx once every 2 minutes within the billboard rotation.

Several Ballarat Groups, the Ballarat District and Area D all financed the billboard. The design was adapted from a previous project with consultation from the Ballarat Committee and the member who originally designed the image.

Going live May 21st, this project had a quick turnaround time and shows that when we unite Groups, District and Area together we are able to achieve great public information. Both the Ballarat District and Area D would love to encourage Groups to come along to their next meetings.

A new way to receive your copy of AA Around Australia

AA Around Australia is now available as a digital copy delivered to your email inbox on an "opt in" basis.

Over the years production costs and postage has risen, and with a mailing list of around 1800 it's quite a considerable cost each year to produce and deliver. But don't worry, AA Around Australia will always be free and mailed to any group or member that wants it.

You can however, opt out of the hardcopy and receive AA Around Australia digitally to your email each quarter. To opt in please email chris@aa.org.au with the current name and address that AA Around Australia is delivered too and your preferred email. The great thing about the digital copy is that it's in colour and can then be easily sent on, by you, to your Group Members.
