Our great responsibility

Geoff S, Delegate for Southern Region Area F, gives us his insight into Conference 2019

A Newcomer to conference, again.

Although this was my first conference as a Delegate, it was my second time attending as I'd been an alternate previously. So - I had an idea of what to expect. The long hours, the indefatigable powers of argument of the alcoholic, the impatience, the intolerance, the hobbyhorses, and then the surprise – when it all works out and an agreement is reached. Sometimes grudging, but an agreement, nonetheless. My expectations were not disappointed.

Sometimes in AA service work, it is difficult to act from a position of love all the time. We do get caught up in 'the debate', everyone enjoys when their argument out does someone else's, we like to 'win.' Spirited discussion is great in AA it helps us make sure that all the information is on the table before we decide on the preferred course. It of course ideally should be accompanied by a degree of humility. Humility has always been explained to me as being right sized for the situation at hand. Know when to step up and be assertive (not argumentative) and knowing when to sit quietly. I'm not sure humility includes arguing over pointless minutiae in order to score points off others or repeating the same point over and over in the hope it will get more persuasive by saying it more. Humility certainly doesn't include eye-rolling, sighing and talking over others.

Conference 2019 had a debate about how addicts other than alcoholics should behave and be treated in meetings, a very important topic, as their numbers are growing and we see more and more drug addicts in AA meetings all the time. Bill Wilson considered this at least as early as 1951 and replied in a letter that AAs should be happy to have recovered drug addicts in open meetings and encouraged them to round up more addicts and seek the experience of the AAs on how to start up their own (NA) meeting. In the late 50s he pointed out that they should continue to attend but must not ever consider themselves members - his principles were written in the Grapevine in 1958, and were reaffirmed by conference many times since.

One side discussion that many delegates seemed to be having round the various coffee sources was the diminishing pool of volunteers to take on service roles. Where the 80:20 principle still holds true, it should be possible to attract more members to get involved. After all we have three parts to our recovery, or so I am told by my sponsor. It would be easy to let the blame lie at the feet of sponsors. But trying to be right size about it - surely those of us in service positions are not making it look attractive enough to those we come into contact with. Maybe we need to inventory our own actions when sponsoring. Maybe we should avail ourselves of a review with our own sponsors. Can we all hand on heart say everything we thought and did and said at conference came from a position of love and service? We are not saints, but I for one can do better in that area. I'm often told in this fellowship that I'm not on my own.

The brown paper bag

A great many alcoholics in our part of the world still haven't heard of AA. You and your group can help carry the message by donating to the International Sponsorship Fund.

Each year, the Fellowship distributes the Founders Day brown paper bags to collect money to help carry the message to the still suffering alcoholics in countries in South East Asia and the Pacific.

Founders Day (June 10) is the anniversary of the day in 1935 when AA started. The brown paper bags symbolises "what it was like".

What can your group do to help?

Discuss this collection with the members of your group. As a group you might decide to:

Read this notice out at the meeting.

Circulate the brown paper bag separately to your normal collection.

Announce that all the money collected for that meeting will go into the brown paper bag for international sponsorship.

Invite members to give more than they usually do because this is a special collection to help alcoholics in countries that don't have the huge number of AA meetings and other resources that we have. Cheques and money orders should be made out to: General Service Board of AA. Any questions, please phone the General Service Office on (02) 9599 8866. Please post

Where does your contribution go?

It was resolved in 2003 that 75% of the International Literature fund collection be made available to assist countries in the Asia/Oceania Zone with their literature and PI&CPC activities in the Asia/Oceania Zone and the remaining 25% be forwarded to New York General Service Office as Australia's contribution to the International Literature Fund.

Most recently the 25% that was forwarded to GSO New York was used to translate the Big Book into Punjabi. The Big Book is currently translated in 69 languages, with 21 additional translations in various stages of completion, including the Navajo Big Book, and revisions to the Croatian and Slovakian Big Books.

Judy W shares her experience about service in Correctional Facilities

Here is my experience of carrying our message to the women in the gaol in Canberra.

It's something I have always wanted to do, but I must confess until September last year I never got around to it. After getting the paper work done and attending a security course, I anxiously turned up with a n o t h e r woman for my first meeting there.

The process of getting in can а bit daunting but I soon learnt which door I can open and which doors you need to wait to have opened. Most weeks it has been pretty smooth but I needed to be prepared times to be patient as different guards seem to have different ways of doing things. I am not there to question this and as a guest and an AA member I need to be polite and just go with the flow. I am an example of AA in action, not only to the inmates but also to the staff.

As I arrive I ask the guards to announce the meeting and soon a few women arrive. Attendance varies between 2 to 6 with a couple of consistent attendees. But sometimes there are none from the gaol. I am not there to question motivation for attending, although my wish is that their attendance is based on a desire to stop drinking.

The women there do it tough and it takes courage to attend. In fact I think that these women are among courageous women I know. As I said before they only have one meeting per week, limited literature and anonymity is a big issue as the meeting is announced over the PA and others know what they are doing in the visitor's room. Sometimes other inmates and guards walk in and out during the meeting, which isn't ideal. At times they can be reluctant to share in the meeting itself, in front of others, so I always make some time for a 'meeting after meeting' and a hug for those who want The one. women need to know that AA members care about them and their recovery.

I h a v e admiration for the courage of the women who turn up week after week and try to practice the program in spite of the difficult environment they live in. Well if they can do it, surely I can. It's the 12th step in action with some of our most marginalised women who would otherwise perhaps not have the opportunity to hear our message of hope. . A lot of the women are in for fairly short sentence and it's good if they can get some grounding in the AA program and some AA contacts for when they are released.

So what have I got out of this? Well, this is an experience that I should not have missed for so long. I have a renewed appreciation for my life, my recovery and sobriety. I can see where this disease can take women, who in other ways appear to be loving daughters and loving mothers. But for the "Grace of God go I", I say to myself as I leave.

During the course of 20 General Service Conferences, Bill W. gave more than 33 talks, 16 of which are now gathered in the new book Our Great Responsibility: A Selection of Bill W.'s General Service Conference Talks, 1951-1970, which is now available in Australia. Not only does Our Great Responsibility represent the first time these talks have been made available in print form to the general reader, but it is also the first original book from Alcoholics Anonymous in over 30 years. "The talks included in Our Great Responsibility capture a clear picture of Bill's vision for the future of A.A. and pose questions that are still quite relevant today," says Greg T., G.S.O. general manager. "They also give fresh insights into A.A. history and the enduring purpose of the General Service Conference."

International Sponsorship fund delivers results

In 2016 AA Australia hosted a large Public Information event prior to the first National Convention to be held off shore, in Fiji. Here's a letter from Fiji Phylis about what's happened since then...

Fiji is an island with sparkling beaches, swaying palms and beauty. A Travel poster of the tropics. But if you look closer you will see beneath those palms, the hopeless drunken men and women, captured in alcoholism with wasted lives, broken families, poverty and violence.

Fiji is an island with no detox, rehabs, or counselling and very little awareness about alcoholism. Australia brought to its shores in 2016 their National Convention and I mark from that Convention, a steady growth of AA awareness, growth in the fellowship and the beginning of the AA General Service Organization in Fiji.

From a single meeting in Suva, your assistance and funds from General Service has helped us do the following"

With your help we advertised AA in the Fiji Times, with your help we paid for a hotline phone 24 hours a day. With your help we sent a delegate to the AOSM in Hong Kong to learn from other countries. With your help we sent a delegate to your National Convention to share and to report back.

From that awareness of General Service structure we created a GSO Office, a bank account, registered a Tin tax number, voted in 5 General Service Representatives and created service positions. We hold monthly meetings where the five meeting representatives, General Secretary, Secretary, and Treasure are in attendance. We currently have 4 Skype meeting and one face to face meeting.

With your help we set up a website aafiji.com and we have invited members not only on the small islands of Fiji, but the Solomons, PNG, Tonga and Samoa to join us in our skype meeting. We have also offered on messenger a Big Book Study group and our Daily Reflections discussion .We are carrying the message of AA to the South Pacific Islands.

We still have a long way to go to reach the still suffering alcoholic and to create awareness of Alcoholism: "Village Reach Out" requires funding for transportation and housing to travel and set up public information meetings in the local rural villages on Viti Levu and on the smaller islands of Vanua Levu, Taveuni, Yasawas and Kadavu. Funding is needed for a Public Awareness campaign to post banners, posters, stickers, and sign boards about alcoholism and AA. We currently are gathering information from the AOSM countries that have had success with utilizing public displays.

Finally, funding to sponsor and send 2 delegate to the 2021 AOSM, so as to train with the current delegate this year during their last term.

It can be done with your help and now our own self-supporting efforts. We thank you very much for the incredible support, caring and fellowship that has made such progress possible. We know that Fiji and the South Pacific Islands have become stronger in fellowship and recovery due to your General Service. I think I see those still suffering alcoholics under the palm trees, stirring from their drunkenness due to a fresh breeze of sobriety that is carrying the AA message of recovery and hope to them.

God Bless them and you Vinaka Vakalevu Fiji Phylis

Bellingen bought a book

Bellingen suddenly needed a Big Book in Urdu

When a newcomer with limited English turned up at the Bellingen Thursday evening AA meeting, the members realised he would benefit from a Big Book in his own language. The members contacted the General Service Office for help.

The GSO had a copy of the Big Book in Urdu sitting on the shelf. It was presented to the newcomer at the subsequent meeting and he was asked to read out the Twelve Steps in Urdu as part of the reading of How It Works. The look of joy on his face as he read out the Steps in a language he understood was wonderful to behold and led to a huge and spontaneous cheer from the whole room when he finished.

The Big Book has been translated into 71 languages and you never know where in multicultural Australia you might need one to help the alcoholic who still suffers. GSO stocks many translations of the Big Book so they are ready to assist when the unexpected happens just like it did in Bellingen, NSW—a village of only 2,800 people and two AA meetings every week.

feeling or opinion in light of the right of appeal to the General Service Conference, has been very rare. It is hoped that an individual entitled under Concept V to appeal would exhaust every avenue offered within the General Service Conference structure prior to making an appeal to the General Service Conference.

- 2. All Conference members are entitled to appeal to the General Service Conference.
- 3. The minority should announce, in writing, to the chair of the General Service Board, the Chair of the Conference Agenda Committee and to the General Service Office Conference Coordinator that it intends to appeal under Concept V to the General Service Conference.
- 4. All Conference members will be given notice through the General Service Office of the minority's decision to file an appeal.
- 5. Appeals under Concept V, including any minority report and background, should be submitted in writing 30 days prior to the General Service Conference in order for these materials to be distributed to Conference members. The G.S.O. Conference Coordinator will be responsible for seeing that this material is made available to all Conference members within 10 business days after its receipt.
- 6. The minority's appeal will be presented before the start of deliberation on Committee Reports:
- The minority will be given a maximum of ten minutes to present their appeal.
- The majority will then be given a maximum of ten minutes to present their position.
- 7. The discretion to debate a minority's appeal rests with the Conference body.

The chair will ask if there is a motion to decline to debate the minority's appeal. A motion to decline to debate a minority's appeal:

- Must be made without comment.
- Needs a second. Is not debatable. Requires a two thirds majority.

8. If the Conference decides to debate the appeal, it then takes the form of a motion which does not require a second. If passed by substantial unanimity, it becomes an advisory action.

9. Whether or not an appeal is debated, a summary of the minority's report and the disposition of the appeal will be published in the Final Conference Report.

2012 Additional Committee Considerations:

 The committee considered modifying the procedure for the submission of Concept V minority appeals to the General Service Conference and took no action. They agreed that the policy approved by the 2011 General Service Conference sufficiently provides a process for the "Right of Appeal" as described in Concept V - the procedure allows for a "wellheard minority" to be a "chief protection against an uninformed, misinformed, hasty or angry majority," and it makes the "best possible use of minority feeling and opinion."
